

Hinged Ankle Foot Orthosis

Description

This is a brace with a custom molded footplate in that has supportive struts that go up both sides of the ankle. This is used to stabilize foot joints that have excessive mobility or arthritis. It is made to treat conditions such as these:

- Posterior tibial tendon dysfunction.
- Mild arthritis and of the rear foot joints.
- Severe pronation (collapse of the foot).
- Chronic ankle instability.
- Ankle injuries.

